

INVITATION

Special Celebrative Seminar: New model of Sino-Dutch R&D cooperation

When: September 19, 2016

Time: 15.00 to 17.30

Where: Commissiekamer A3, in the Aula of TU Delft

RSVP: email to @M.J.J.Roozenburg@tudelft.nl

Since the establishment of TU Delft's Beijing Research Centre (BRC) in 2012, 10 PhD researchers have been enrolled for this unique program in close cooperation with our Chinese Academic Partners. We are very pleased that the first two BRC PhD candidates will have their PhD thesis defence on September 19 2016, in the Aula of Delft University of Technology.

To celebrate this important milestone, we would like to invite you to join a special seminar after the defences, about the New model of Sino-Dutch R&D cooperation, to share the experiences, look to the future and raise the glass together.
